

Gabriel Feltz
Conductor

Born in 1971 in Berlin, Gabriel Feltz is Generalmusikdirektor of the Dortmund Opera and Chiefconductor of the Dortmund Philharmonic Orchestra and starting the 2017/ 18 season Gabriel Feltz will be the new Chief conductor of the Belgrade Philharmonic Orchestra.

After the Philharmonic Orchestra Altenburg-Gera (2001-2005) and the Stuttgart Philharmonic Orchestra (2004 – 2013) this is his third position in a row as chief conductor of a German Orchestra. With unusual programs and a marked rise of musical quality he managed to increase audiences significantly with all these orchestras. In 2007 the “Sergej Rachmaninow Foundation” awarded Gabriel Feltz and the Stuttgart Philharmonic Orchestra the “Prix Rachmaninow” In addition, Feltz was made Principal Guest Conductor at the Basel Theatre (2008- 2013) and had been responsible for several opera productions, which led to the Basel Theatre being named “Opera House of the year” in 2009 and 2010. In 2013/14 Gabriel Feltz gave his highly successful debut at the Komische Oper Berlin with Bernd Alois Zimmermann’s „Die Soldaten“ and in the same season he conducted the „Flying Dutchman“ at the Bavarian State Opera. Gabriel Feltz’ personal highlight of the 2014/15 season was Gustav Mahler’s 8th Symphony for the 200 Anniversary celebrations of the Musikverein Graz.

Among his future projects you can find concerts and opera productions in Berlin, Frankfurt, Köln, Graz, Belgrad, Taipei (Taiwan) and Sendai (Japan).
